Robert,

What a great email - thank you for taking the time to send it to us!
I will share your positive thoughts with the rest of the team as it makes our day to hear from someone who appreciates the extra time and care we take to make our bagels.
You may have left New Jersey, but the taste of a (well-made) bagel is something that never leaves you - I'm glad we can keep your positive NJ memories going in our small way.

Yes - feel free to stop by our bakery if you're up in NJ and I'm happy to give you a tour.

Best regards,
Dave

Hi Original Bagel People!!!

As a former Bergen County resident I have an affinity for a good bagel. Leaving Jersey in 1983 as a child for Florida, I was dismayed in the fact that good bagels were nowhere to be found. My family tried every bagel place. None even compared. It's The Water down here they said. Which was their justification as to why also you couldn't get a pizza with a good crust down there either haha!!

Fast forward to a move to Illinois in 1994- same deal. With the exception of a few places in Chicago (which is 68 miles away from me in Rockford), there were no bagels to be found as on par with northern New Jersey.

Then one day I found YOU. And it's been a love affair ever since. I literally cannot recall a time since that I have not had a bag of your bagels on my counter since that day! They have become a staple in my household!! And my kids now have the same opinion- good bagels are hard to come by!!

I have never actually written to any company ever to espouse the joys of their product. Never. But after years of relentless satisfaction with yours, I felt the need to! People are very quick to complain, and much less likely to say Job Well Done. Well-- Job Well Done!!

Many more years of success and next time I'm in NJ I may just stop by!!
