Hi Niki,

Thank you very much for making the effort to send such positive feedback.

It takes extra time, effort and money to make bagels the authentic way but we feel the end result is worth it!

Since we're not a retail store we don't get to talk directly with customers often, so your email means a great deal. I will be sure to share it with our team.

Thanks again for your kind words and we'll see if we can introduce Tony's to some more flavors.

Best regards,
Dave

Hello, Dave,

I have a neighbor who has extolled the virtue of New Jersey bagels for years, so much so that we tried making them some months back. (A total disaster!) Quite by accident, I came across your bagels at Tony's Market in Countryside, IL. I quickly called my neighbor to get him on track to experience bagel Nirvana! Today, only two varieties were found in the sparse pickings at Tony's. Obviously others have discovered your delectable products, in spite of the fact that they are tucked next to the entry door on a fairly small rack. We LOVE the Asiago and sesame varieties and hope the store will stock more varieties in the near future. Congratulations on your endeavors to not only deliver a sublime product, but to maintain a green operation in the process. Your bagels rock!

Niki
